

Graphic Designer – Jakarta, Indonesia

How often do you have the chance to actively put yourself in the right place at the right time? Now you have the opportunity to join our fast growing team and together we can advance healthcare for hundreds of millions of people across Asia.

mClinica is a fast growing healthcare technology company, operating in 6 countries and employing passionate and experienced pharmaceutical and business experts. We are now looking for a talented graphic designer to support our Global Creative Team, based in Indonesia.

Your tasks and responsibilities:

- Design and develop marketing materials, which would include, but not be limited to, digital and print advertisements, infographics, posters, and other.
- Work with existing assets to create new and engaging designs and illustrations in coordination with our Global Marketing Team.
- Be involved with the graphical aspects of a web and mobile architecture - how the app and site work and look in cooperation with the UI team.
- Oversee Photo and Video production – adhering to practices, processes and brand standards.

Your Profile

- Desire to learn – attitude is by far the most important. You need to have a deep desire to learn about subject matters you may have little knowledge / expertise in.
- Easy to work with, flexible to changes, be able to turn around projects quickly.
- Be open to working with existing visual identity and adapt designs accordingly.
- Must be able to take direction, as well as conceptualize, design, and organize projects on your own when needed.
- Thrive in a result-oriented, direct environment working closely with the management.
- Confident person who can multitask, assign priorities, and come up with own suggestions/ideas.
- Experience in using Adobe Creative Suite: Photoshop, Illustrator, InDesign.
- Flash and/or After Effects knowledge is a plus.

What You Can Expect from Us

- Significant career growth opportunities in a fast-growing international business based in Jakarta.
- Competitive compensation.
- Challenging and diverse international assignments along with direct responsibilities.
- Fun & casual working environment in an international team.
- Starting date: As soon as possible.
